

Hamline University's Center for Global Environmental Education presents Marylee Hardenbergh's

SOLSTICE RIVER XI

June 21, 2007 – 8:00 pm

Honoring
Sacred Sites
along the Mississippi River

The Center for Global Environmental Education presents Marylee Hardenbergh's

SOLSTICE RIVER XI

The 11th annual site-specific performance at the Stone Arch Bridge in downtown Minneapolis

Thursday, June 21, 2007 · 8:00 pm

Free and open to the public, rain or shine

Music by J. David Moore, simulcast on KBEM 88.5 FM.

You can also join us earlier for a progressive ceremony with Pipe Carrier Jeff Grundtner at:

- ◆ 1:00 PM Indian Mounds Park in St. Paul
- ◆ 4:30 PM Pilot Knob (Acacia Park Cemetery) in Mendota
- ◆ 8:00 PM Performance: The Falls of St. Anthony (Stone Arch Bridge)

FFI: www.cgee.hamline.edu/solstice or www.globalsiteperformance.org or call 651-433-5274

Everyone has a sacred site—maybe it's a certain tree, maybe it's a spot along the river—but whatever you call it, it's a place of rejuvenation. Spiritual places, both ancient and present-day, abound along the length of the Mississippi River. The three major sacred sites we're honoring all figured prominently in our history and were sacred to the Dakota and many other peoples for the last 2500 years.

In partnership with the Upper St. Anthony Falls Lock and Dam of the US Army Corps of Engineers, the University of Minnesota's Hydrology Laboratory, Mill City Museum, the Guthrie Theater, and KBEM.

Hardenbergh is the Artist-in-Residence at Hamline University's Center for Global Environmental Education. CGEE's mission is to foster environmental literacy and stewardship in citizens of all ages. It works in professional development for educators, K-12 project-based learning, public outreach and citizen education, and education media development.

Hamline University
Center for Global Environmental Education
1536 Hewitt Avenue
Saint Paul, MN 55104-1284

NONPROFIT ORG.
U.S. POSTAGE PAID
HAMLINE UNIVERSITY

photo by L. Malmer/Tony Twiggs Graphic design by Corey Sevett